

Your Work Matters

A customized faith-at-work event for churches

God's global mission from Genesis to Revelation is to spread his glory through a worldwide flourishing humanity who reflect him in all of life and work. He has gifted all of his people with unique skills, passions, and circumstances for just such a purpose. All professions, one mission. Every part of our every day is a means of glorifying God and accomplishing his work in this world.

Your Work Matters is a customizable event that helps believers in all walks of life gain a better understanding of how God views their everyday work. Participants leave motivated about how their skills and professions can advance God's kingdom.

Sessions

Sessions range from 20-60 minutes and are interspersed with Q&A. Topics may include:

- Genesis 1 and the Great Commission
- Jesus' global mandate and the case for all professions
- Taking your faith to work
- Stories of real-life workplace disciple-makers

You have changed the way I look at God's call in my life in how I spread the gospel.
